

PEEPING TOMS, SCARED, DESERT PALM BEACH

Two Guests at the Breakers, One With Title, Accused of Boring Holes in Door.

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 12.—Two Italians, one of whom has a title, registered at the Breakers several weeks ago. They had acquaintances among the guests and seemed to be enjoying themselves.

Both men were apparently filled with curiosity, so the story goes, as to what was going on in the room adjoining theirs. They got a small gimlet and bored two holes in the panel of the communicating door, which was securely fastened.
The gimlet holes were discovered quickly and complaint was made to the manager on Monday. The name of the person who made the complaint to the management has been kept secret. The Italians were taken to task for their conduct. While they were not asked to leave matters were made so uncomfortable that they left here on Tuesday night for New York.

HITS ONE WITH PARCEL.

Battles Gamely Until She Is Forced Backward Over
Chair and Beaten.

When Angelo Licati, nineteen, was arraigned in the Harlem Police Court today, Mrs. Ida Gold, his hand swathed in bandages, and leaning heavily on the arm of her husband, was present to tell the Magistrate of a plucky battle she put up against two thieves in her home, No. 8 West One Hundred and Twelfth street.
Mrs. Gold, the wife of Morris Gold, a cigar manufacturer, returned to her home to find the thieves piling silverware and cut glass into a sack.
"What do you mean?" she cried.

NOTICE!
I have no connection with the store mine). Any of my customers who have bought goods there for months will find it to their advantage to address a letter and then she struck one of the men with a bundle she carried. Both thieves attacked her, but she was more than they bargained for. Strong in build and fearless in nature, Mrs.

Gold fought the men from the parlor to the dining room, and screamed for help as she pummeled them.
RIGHT WRIST BROKEN, SHE IS OVERPOWERED.

One of the men managed to grab Mrs. Gold by the ankles. She fell, breaking her right wrist, and the men leaped on her and when she tried to rise they forced her over a chair and beat her backwards until her spine was in danger of breaking.
Holding her in this position they rained blows on her until she was semi-conscious. Then they fled to the street. Neighbors had heard her cries and met the men at the door. They followed them to the street.
The men ran east to Fifth avenue and turned south, the neighbors following and yelling, "Stop Thief!" On duty at One Hundred and Eleventh street and Fifth avenue was Patrolman Lamour of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station.
He ordered the men to halt, but they dashed past him and he fired three shots at them.

They continued to run, and at One Hundred and Tenth street swung east, the patrolman close behind them. He fired two more shots at the fugitives at Madison avenue, and one of them stopped and threw up his hands. The other continued to run and escaped.
The prisoner was taken to the East One Hundred and Fourth street police station, where he said he was Angelo Licati, nineteen, of No. 313 East Thirtieth street. He was locked up charged with assault and burglary.

IRISH VOLUNTEERS TO HAVE A GALA NIGHT.

Reception and Review in Terrace Garden to Be Big Feature of St. Patrick's

One of the big events of the annual celebration of St. Patrick's Day will be the review and reception of the First Regiment of Irish Volunteers in Terrace Garden. The guest of the night will be Congressman James A.
Hamil, father of the national civil service pension bill.

Col. Charles J. Crowley announces that a feature of the night will be the presence of a deputation of the Irish Volunteers from Dublin. Forces will have them in charge. This body was organized as an offset to the threatening menace of the Orangemen's provisional army.

There will be contests in Irish step dancing and there is no bar on tango or other modern dances.
Tables reserved by mistake.
Mrs. Lillie Morris, twenty-two, of No.
28 Irving place, was removed to Bellevue Hospital late last night suffering from bichloride of mercury poisoning.
She swallowed the poison in mistake for grip medicine. She took two seven and a half grain tablets before discovering her error. Policeman McDonald, who was called, administered first aid, and when Dr. Topping of Bellevue Hospital arrived he said the policeman's prompt antidote might save her life.

Boy Tells Assistant Corporation Counsel Sheehy That He
"Just Walked In."

As Assistant Corporation Counsel John G. Sheehy, who lives with his father, ex-Charities Commissioner Edward G. Sheehy, at No. 174 Lexington avenue, was crossing the hall about 8 o'clock last night, he heard a noise in the lower hall. He looked over the banisters and saw a boy stealing into the parlor.
"What do you want there?" he called.

The boy turned up an innocent face.
"Don't you want to give me a job chopping wood?" he said.

"How did you get in?" asked Mr.
Sheehy.

"The door was open and I just walked in," the boy replied.

But Mr. Sheehy summoned Detectives Ryan and Meyers, who took the boy to the East Eighty-eighth street station. He gave the name of Charles Leidy, seventeen, of No. 244 East Seventy-eighth street. The detectives say he is an old acquaintance. He was locked up on a charge of burglary.

An Early Surprise for Young Women —Silk Poplin Suits for $10

A glance at their pretty style (pictured) will convince any one that they were never intended to sell for so little. The coat has a neatly embroidered collar and is belted in back. The tunic skirt is another unusual feature. Black, navy, mahogany, Copenhagen. Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years.

Among the Other Suits for Young Women

The Largest Shirt Sale the Largest Shirt Store Has Ever Held Opens Tomorrow at 8.30

32,400 Men's Fancy Shirts, 70c

(3 Shirts for $2)

7,200 Shirts of $1.50 Grade
25,200 Shirts of $1 Grade

12,400 Shirts with Soft Cuffs 20,000 Shirts with Stiff Cuffs

We could have made this offering include 75,000 shirts instead of 32,400.
The maker offered us his entire stock at a price. But we felt that, good as his entire stock was, a careful selection would make our offering better.

All these shirts are Spring and Summer patterns.
They are all with light grounds and hairline stripes of blue, lavender or black.
They are the kind of shirts that men will be paying not less than $1 and $1.50 for when the weather turns a little warmer.

Woven madras, percales and soft mercerized materials.
"Foresight is better than hindsight."

NOW—Next Season's Shirts—70c

Later—When Next Season is Here—$1 to $1.50

Therefore it is the part of wisdom and economy to lay in a season's supply.
